- Code of Conduct for Education Loans: Prohibits a conflict of interest with the responsibilities of an agent of the school with respect to the previous FFEL Program or private education loans. All agents with responsibility for loans are informed annually of the provisions of the code which prohibits:
 - Revenue-sharing arrangements with any lender

IESE Business School will work with whichever private lender student decide to use, if the lender is willing to work with the school.

Please remember to compare all loans before applying. Most private loans have variable interest rates (meaning they will fluctuate over time), while federal loans have fixed interest rates and more lenient repayment terms. Please note, that before we can certify and process a private loan (Offered by Sallie Mae) you will also need to have completed and sent in a signed and dated "Private Education Loan Applicant Self-Certification" form. An e-mailed scanned completed copy will be acceptable: faohelp@iese.edu.

- National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS): NSLDS is the U.S. Department of Education's central database for student aid. If a student takes US Federal loan, school is required to submit to the NSLDS relevant data about the loan. NSLDS is accessible by guarantee agencies, lenders and schools determined to be authorized users of the data system. Additionally, IESE on a frequent basis confirms and updates NSLDS with the enrollment status of the student.
- Student's Rights and Responsibilities under Title IV, HEA loan program can be found on the US Department of Education website.
- Consequences of defaults on US Federal loans:
 - The entire unpaid balance of your loan and any interest is immediately due and payable.
 - You lose eligibility for deferment, forbearance, and repayment plans.
 - You lose eligibility for additional federal student aid.
 - Your loan account is assigned to a collection agency.
 - The loan will be reported as delinquent to credit bureaus, damaging your credit rating. This will affect your ability to buy a car or house or to get a credit card.
 - Your federal and state taxes may be withheld through a tax offset. This means that the Internal Revenue Service can take your federal and state tax refund to collect any of your defaulted student loan debt.

- Your student loan debt will increase because of the late fees, additional interest, court costs, collection fees, attorney's fees, and any other costs associated with the collection process.
 - Your employer (at the request of the federal government) can withhold money from your pay and send the money to the government. This process is called wage garnishment.
 - The loan holder can take legal action against you, and you may not be able to purchase or sell assets such as real estate.
 - Federal employees face the possibility of having 15% of their disposable pay offset by their employer toward repayment of their loan through Federal Salary Offset.
 - It will take years to reestablish your credit and recover from default.
- Entrance Counselling for Student Loan Borrowers -All students receiving unsubsidized or PLUS loan(s) under the Direct Loan Program or the previous FFEL Program must complete entrance counselling before the first disbursement of the loan. During entrance counseling, you will learn about the following:

- What a Direct Loan is and how the loan process works
- Managing your education expenses
- Other financial resources to consider to help pay for your education
- Your rights and responsibilities as a borrower

Please complete Direct Loan Entrance Counseling electronically at Entrance Counseling.gov. Additionally, student, before the first disbursement of loan should sign the IESE Entrance Counselling Form (document provided by the Financial Aid Office: faohelp@iese.edu).

Please complete exit counselling on the StudentLoans.gov website: <https://studentloans.gov/myDirectLoan/index.action>. You'll need your FSA ID and it will take you approximately 30 minutes. Please email the "Completed Exit Counselling" confirmation page to the Financial Aid Office at: Faohelp@iese.edu once completed.
